ECHO OF TIME

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
OF OTTOVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
Vol. I - 1959

DEDICATION

Throughout his fifty years of teaching, Mr. Heckman has enriched the lives of many students, not only by his teaching of science and mathematics, but also with the vast amount of knowledge he has accummulated during the years. Having acted as mayor for twenty years and a good citizen every year, Mr. Heckman is a man who has earned the friendship and respect of the entire community. He is remembered by all sports enthusiasts for his coaching of many winning basketball teams. None of us will ever forget him. In sincere gratitude for all he has done for our homes, our school, and our community, we, the senior class of Ottoville High School, dedicate the first edition of the ECHO OF TIME to Mr. Louis W. Heckman.

The advanced math class was made up entirely of Junior and Senior boys.

A familiar scene in the senior physics class.

Mr. Heckman explains a new piece of equipment to three Junior boys.

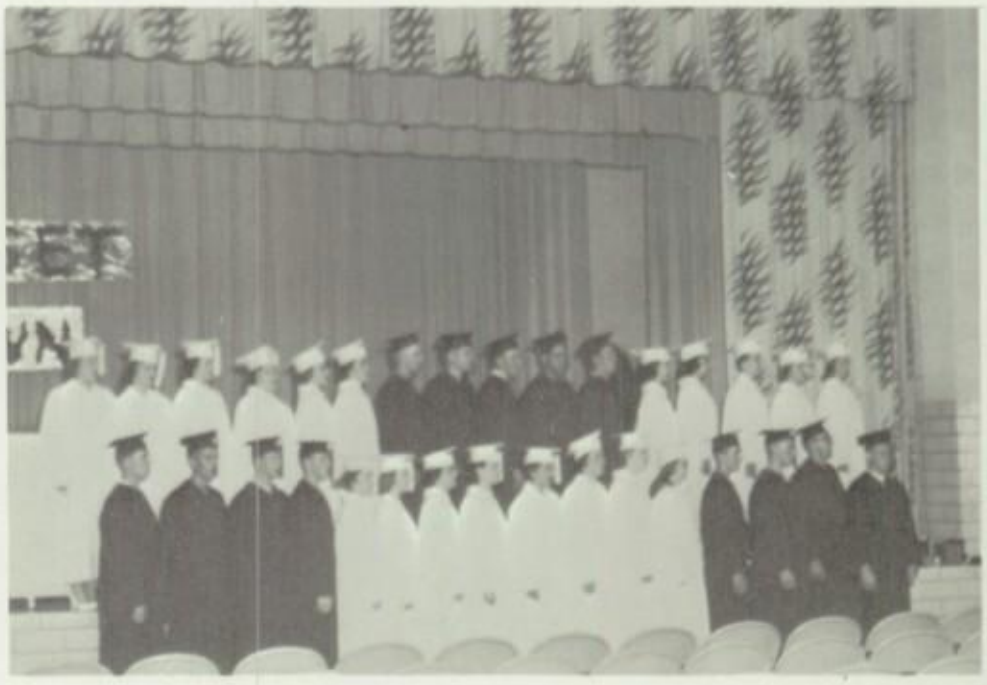
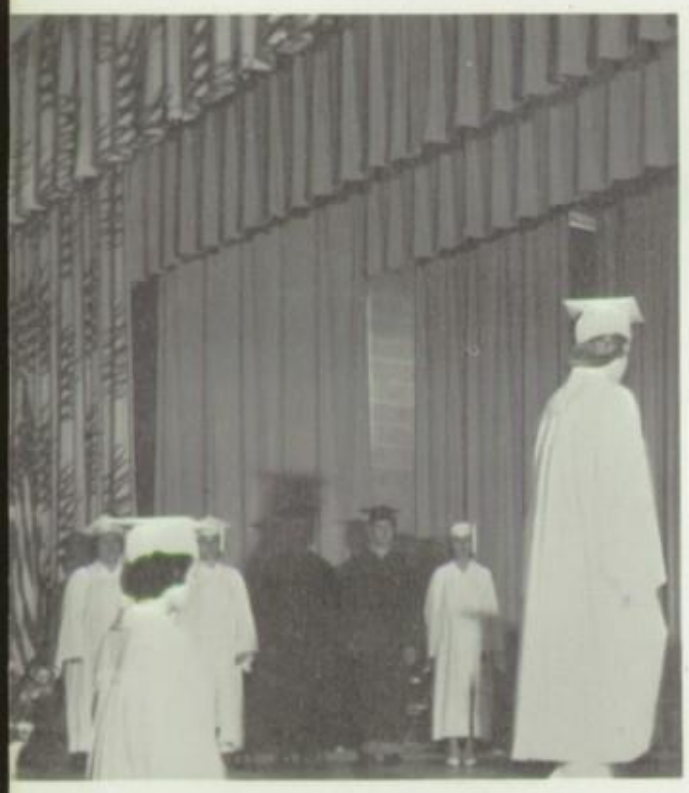
GRADUATION

COMMENCEMENT

Ruth Langhals delivers the Valedictory.



Seniors sing the closing song.



Commencement exercises began at 8:00 p.m. in the school auditorium. The stage was beautifully decorated with a large sign reminding all who came to witness our graduation that "Not Sunset But Dawn" was more than a motto. It was our viewpoint of the future.

The girls, wearing white caps and gowns, and boys, wearing blue caps and gowns, marched down the middle aisle to the stage. Judge of the Court of Appeals Joseph B. Quatman of Lima delivered the main address, touching upon the ideals toward which all should strive.

SENIOR TRIP

ACTIVITIES

PROM NIGHT

May 14, was a night to remember for the Juniors and Seniors of Ottoville High. That was Prom night. A delicious meal and heavenly music highlighted the happy occasion.

The Juniors worked hard to prepare the decorations for the banquet and dance. They were rewarded with praise from all who attended. The Juniors and Seniors alike were delighted with the outcome of that very special night.

Sporting an unhealthy batting average of .121 and committing an average of 5 errors per game, the Ottoville baseball team failed to come up with a victory in its three encounters this spring. Fort Jennings spoiled the Big Green's opener as they squeezed past the Locals 5 to 4. Hamilton, Vaughnsville's pitcher, was the big obstacle in the second game, as he twirled a one-hit shutout at the luckless locals. His teammates helped him out by giving him a comfortable 6 run cushion to work with. In the P. C. baseball tournament Miller City played spoiler as they blasted Ottoville pitching for 8 hits and 8 runs, and took an easy 8 to 3 decision.

Ottoville pitchers, Don Schlagbaum and Ralph Pohl, walked 11, struck out 12, gave up 19 runs and 16 hits in the three games. The pitchers didn't have very good fielding to back them up, as the team committed 15 errors in the three contests.

Ottoville batsmen struck out 27 times, walked 19 times, got 8 hits and 7 runs.

Joe Klima had the top batting average with .280. Jerry Hilvers averaged .200.
